

2021 - 2022 Canada Games Women's Head Coach

Volleyball Alberta is currently seeking qualified individuals for the following position:

1. One Canada Summer Games Women's Head Coach

This age group will be representing Alberta at the 2022 Canada Summer Games. We are looking for a one-year commitment (August 2021-August 2022)

Coach Role and Responsibilities (but not limited to):

- Involvement in athlete identification including advanced scouting at Volleyball Alberta Events and conducting Talent Identification.
 - Training camp will be held August 13-15, 2021 (dependent on start date)
 - I.D. camp to be held in December 2021
 - 2022 selection camps and training camps are yet to be confirmed
- Assisting with the organization, planning and execution of summer training schedule in cooperation with the Head Coach, Volleyball Alberta high-performance staff and mentor coaches.
- Supervision of athletes in residence & training/competition venues throughout the training/competition period (at least one coach/team must stay in Residence overnight with the athletes).

Volleyball Alberta will facilitate a mentorship and professional development program to work with the Team Alberta coaching staff.

Qualifications:

- All coaches named on the official registration form for the 2022 Canada Summer Games (head coaches and assistant coaches) must be NCCP Performance Coach certified. Coaches must be so certified no later than 180 days prior to the opening ceremony (February 7, 2022).
- Evidence of advanced technical and tactical knowledge in the sport of volleyball.
- Excellent communication skills with athletes, coaches, therapist, parents, and administrative staff.
- Ability to assist with an integrated high-performance training program.
- Performance in a formal interview (if deemed necessary by the Selection Committee).

Interested coaches should apply via email with a cover letter and a resume:

rsewell@volleyballalberta.ca

Interviews (if necessary) will take place in August 2021.

For further information, please contact Volleyball Alberta at (780) 415 – 1703 ext. 5.

Deadline to apply: August 8, 2021